TO OUR CUSTOMER:

Thank you for your purchase of aerial fabric rigging materials and equipment from Aerial Fabric Acrobatics, LLC (“AFA”). We appreciate your business.

Our customers who purchase aerial rigging fabric acrobatic materials use them to assemble rigging for use in aerial fabric acrobatic activities. These activities are, by their nature, dangerous to all of the participating individuals including students and performers. AFA wants you to know that it is vital that anyone using its rigging materials be fully aware of prescribed industry methods for assembling rigging, including, but not limited to all necessary safety procedures and precautions.

We provide this warning to you to make you aware of, and sensitive to, your participants’ needs for safety and the absolute necessity to have competent assemblers and riggers assemble and install your apparatus.

You have not requested AFA’s assistance for your rigging activities except to assemble the fabric to the hardware provided. All hardware specifications are provided. AFA has had no role in examining the proposed location or configuration of your rigging or the precise ways in which you will use it.

AFA hereby disclaims any and all responsibility for your use of the rigging materials you purchase. We recommend that you engage competent professionals to assist in the rigging. You proceed at your own risk if you do not do so. AFA may offer you a separate agreement by which it will provide you on-site consultation to assist in the rigging procedure.
